GILMER, TEXAS ● NEW SINGLE

Grady Maguire

“Cold Day in Hell”

RELEASE DATE

Oct 9, 2026

Texas Country

THE SONG

A working man’s prayer out of the Piney Woods — long days under the Texas sun, bills stacked higher than the paycheck, and a man digging for pennies to throw in the wishing well. Cut live with a full band of fiddle, pedal steel and dobro, it’s hard-luck country asking for a miracle, or at least a cold day in hell.

ABOUT GRADY

Grady Maguire is a singer-songwriter out of Gilmer, Texas, whose country music doesn’t dress up or apologize — gritty, honest, and rooted in the people and places he knows. He’s taken his songs to stages across Texas, Oklahoma and Arizona, building a following the old-fashioned way: one show at a time, one song at a time. “Cold Day in Hell” is his debut — the first of three originals cut live at Rosewood Studios and rolling out through early 2027.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Debut single; Single 2 lands Nov 6 — two days before the TCMA Awards at Billy Bob’s Texas. Single 3 follows Jan 8, 2027.
- Has played the Tucson Folk Festival and the Oklahoma Listening Room, with shows across Texas, Oklahoma and Arizona.
- Seven-piece band: fiddle, banjo, pedal steel, dobro, mandolin, keys.
